

ART SONG TRANSPOSITIONS

Henry Purcell (1659-1695)

What power art thou, who from below

Song of the Cold Genius | from King Arthur, Z. 628 | Librettist: John Dryden (1631-1700)

in B-flat minor

What power art thou, who from below

Song of the Cold Genius | from King Arthur, Z. 628

John Dryden

Henry Purcell

Slow

COLD GENIUS

What ___ pow'r ___ art thou ___ who from ___ be - low ___ hast made ___ me rise ___ un - wil - ling - ly and slow ___ from ___ beds ___ of e - ver -

- last - - - ing snow? ___

18

See'st thou not how stiff how stiff and won - d'rous

21

old far far un - fit to bear the 23

bit - ter cold

25

I can scarce - ly move or draw my breath can scarce - ly

28

move _____ and draw _____ my breath? _____ Let me

30

let me let me freeze _____ a - gain _____ Let me

32

let me freeze _____ a - gain to death _____ let me let me let me

stentando

34

freeze _____ a - gain to death.